

"MODEL HUSBAND" HAS TWO WIVES, BRIDE CHARGES

Strube Held for Bigamy After Being Trained From One Home to Another.

Catherine M. Stamper, twenty-eight, of No. 555 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, who, with her sister Daisy, dances in the vaudeville team known as the Golden Sisters, knows a model husband when she sees one. She was a widow, with one child, when three months ago she met Christopher Strube, who was so exceedingly nice and attentive to her that he captivated her affections.

On Sept. 9 they were married at Brooklyn Borough Hall, and forthwith Strube started out to shine as a model husband. He was handy about the house. His bride's hands were not permitted to become roughened by dishwashing. In many ways he displayed the utmost solicitude.

The bride sighed in contentment. At last the model husband had been found and he was here! His consideration was such that when she went out for a spin with her sister on the latter's new motorcycle on Sept. 26, Friend Husband not only cooked the family dinner but washed the clothes and hung them on the line.

Strube appeared desolated, his bride declared, when he was forced to announce on Sept. 28 that business would keep him out late. "Business" again was urged the evening of Oct. 1 as cause for his expected lateness. But when he left home that night his bride secretly followed him to a house on Lexington Avenue, she said. Then, according to her account, this is what happened:

A woman emerged from the basement after Strube entered the house. "Do you know Mr. Strube?" asked the bride, assuming the woman to be the janitress.

"Of course! I am Mrs. Strube. What's the matter? Has he another wife?" was the response.

While the two women were comparing notes Strube opened the door, saw them together, and, according to his bride, disappeared with utmost expedition.

To-day Strube was a prisoner in the Adams Street Court, charged with bigamy. He pleaded not guilty and was held by Magistrate Walsh in $5,000 bail.

UNIVERSITY FUND DRIVE.

First Million Dollar Mark Has Been Turned.

New York University's endowment fund drive has nearly turned the first million dollar mark. It was announced to-day by Vincent Roberts, Chairman of the National Alumni Committee, at the endowment fund headquarters, No. 542 37th Avenue. Mr. Roberts called attention to the recognition by the late Jacob H. Schiff that the university is rendering a great public service when Mr. Schiff made a bequest of $50,000 to the School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance. He was expressed by Mr. Roberts that other public-spirited men will assist the university in its campaign for $5,000,000.

It's the Little Things that Count The Vitamine, for Instance

JUST what a vitamine is seems pretty hard to describe. It is that mysterious and elusive factor in foods without which you cannot live.

Diseases due to mal-nutrition are caused chiefly through lack of vitamins. Much of the food you eat is deficient in these vital elements. Milk is rich in them. Whatever your diet may be you are safe if you include a liberal portion of milk. Milk is the complete food. It contains everything needed to make a healthy body.

Milk and fresh vegetables are the richest in vitamine content. The intelligent use of this discovery will put money in your purse and add years to your life.

Doing Away with Chance in Children's Hosiery

CHILDREN are hard on stockings, at best. The least your dealer can do is to give you children's hosiery of known value—full size, shapely, and good for at least a normal period of wear.

Probably once upon a time you got some of this exceptional Black Cat Hosiery for your children. Did you get the same thing the next time you went back to the store? Or were you forced to take something out of a mixed stock?

This practice of mixing hosiery stocks is nothing but a habit of the average dealer's mind. The real merchant broke away from it years ago. Thousands of stores are concentrating on Allen A Black Cat Hosiery as their one great standardized line.

Allen A Black Cat Hosiery has been made in the same great Mills for thirty years. Each pair will in the future be stamped "Allen A"—the Maker's personal pledge to you of uniform quality and dependable value.

"Allen"—the name of the Makers; and "A"—the standard mark of first and finest grade. Tell your dealer to concentrate on Allen A Black Cat Hosiery—keeping up his assortment and sizes, buying from the Mills direct.

Silk, lisle, wool, cotton—for men, women and children.
